

APPEAL AGAINST A DECISION OF A BOARD OF EXAMINERS/BOARD OF FACULTY ON THE BASIS OF NEW INFORMATION

NOTES

- 1 A candidate may appeal against their academic progress decision on the basis of evidence of extenuating circumstances which was not known to the Board at the time the decision was made.
N.B. The academic judgement of the examiners is not open to appeal.
- 2 The regulations require that relevant written medical evidence, or evidence of compassionate circumstances must:
 - a) in the case of examinations be presented to the Course/Subject Director not later than five working days following the examination; or
 - b) in the case of coursework be presented to the Course/Subject Director not later than five working days following the due submission date.
- 3 Evidence of ill-health must be authenticated by the candidate's doctor or registered counsellor for periods of illness greater than 5 days. Less than 5 days may be self-certified.
- 4 The above is a summary of Section 14 of the General Regulations for Students and of Sections 36 and 42 of the Regulations Governing Examinations in Programmes of Study. Candidates considering an appeal are advised to read the appropriate regulations. Ordinance and Regulations
- 5 The completed form will be considered by an Appeals Panel acting on behalf of the examinations board which made the original decision. The candidate may be interviewed if they so wish and may be accompanied at interview by a member of the University.
- 6 An explanatory leaflet on student appeals is available: Appeals Guidance for Students and the Students' Union can provide advice.
